

ADRIAN CHILES

Adrian Chiles is one of Television's most versatile and sought after presenters. He can be seen on national prime-time television almost every day of the week: as presenter and anchor of The One Show (BBC One); regular presenter of MOTD2 (BBC One and Two); and as host of The Apprentice: You're Fired (BBC Two).

Adrian presented the hugely successful first series of Who Do You Think You Are (BBC Two), and has featured as a guest presenter on Have I Got News For You (BBC One)

He spent 13 years as presenter of daily business news programme Working Lunch (BBC Two) and has also written and presented several one-off documentaries for the BBC including Asian Millionaires (BBC Two), Working in the Dark (BBC One), So What Do You Do All Day (BBC Two), It Beats Working (BBC One), Royal Millions (BBC One), and What Ron Said (BBC One).

As a radio presenter Adrian has worked on Financial World Tonight (BBC Radio 4), Wake up to Money (BBC Radio 5 Live), and 6-0-6 (BBC Radio 5 Live). Adrian's own radio show Chiles on Saturday (BBC Radio 5 Live) won a Sony Radio Academy Gold Award in 2002.

Adrian's first book We Don't Know What We're Doing, a diary of a season in the lives of West Bromwich Albion Fans and their families, was published by Little Brown in 2008 and was runner up in it's category at the 2008 Sports Book Awards.
